Gray Hats Are In the Way

I am writing this article to promote this channeling of Hakann from the You Are Loved blog:

60% of gray hat leadership are corrupted by power-lust and greed. Additionally, some gray hat leadership have sold out to the cabal, and are sabotaging the positive initiatives of the gray hats. 20% of the gray hat leadership are freedom fighters who are working to liberate this planet from the cabal.

This dynamic is accurately portrayed in the Hunger Games. Corrupted gray hat leadership (60%) are represented by President Coin, and freedom fighter gray hat leadership (20%) are represented by Commander Paylor:

I think there is a big misunderstanding. The gray hats believe that they hold the keys and that they are the only ones who can arrest the cabal and liberate the planet.

The gray hats should watch these videos:

Do you understand (I am speaking directly to the gray hats now) that this solar system is filled with positive human (and non-human) galactics who possess much, much, better tech than you, and who want to see this planet liberated? I am one of those galactics, who has incarnated on this planet to liberate it from the inside. Do you really think you hold the keys?

It seems to me that you don't hold anything, you're in the way, and that you're too weak (or stupid?) to do what's right, even when it's handed to you:

The gray hats should read Bringers of the Dawn and my "Intro" article. Lightworker-starseeds aren't kooky new age naives who need to be saved. That is the cabal infiltrating the lightworker-starseed community to try to humiliate it. We are advanced cosmic beings infiltrating a loosh farm to collapse it from the inside. Our souls are more advanced than yours. We are more of a threat to the cabal than you are.

Lightworker-starseeds have been doing our part, raising the consciousness on this planet (100th Monkey Effect) by spreading truth (information warfare against cabal disinformation) and meditating (can you meditate, by the way?).

You are not doing your part, and you may regret it. I would love to see Commander Paylor usurp President Coin before President Coin gets shot.

If you don't get your act together, you won't be participating in the public Utopia future of this planet (souls relocated).

The future is actually going to be like this, but not as a joke, humanity won't be bored (addiction to loosh slavery), the dinosaurs are humans (cosmic family), it's a collaboration not a takeover (graduation, noblesse oblige), and the asteroid never existed (humans do it to themselves):

"I think I speak for all world leaders when I say that the poor people would just murder us if we made you leave, so... welcome home, dinosaurs."

I think the gray hats would be maneuvering more efficiently if they understood what it is like to starve to death:

"Hunger remains one of the biggest humanitarian crises today. Children are the most vulnerable. A child dies from hunger every 10 seconds, adding up to 3.1 million child deaths per year. Despite global efforts to reduce hunger, progress has stalled in recent years, especially in conflict zones like Sudan, where millions face extreme food insecurity."

But hey, if the liberation process is still ongoing by the time some gray hats pass over, maybe they can find out in their next incarnation.
